The thrills of adventure and the excitement of meeting other players await you in a vast world where many worlds intersect. ♦ GAME LOCATION The game world is divided into 12 sectors and is far more beautiful than the Xbox 360 version, and with six stunning countries: • ELDEN STONE. • ELDEN BONES. • ELDEN GILL. • ELDEN CLOUD. • ELDEN BARRY. • ELDEN CHARTRE. The vast open world, unlike the Xbox 360 version, has more detailed designs, such as buildings, and there are many new event scenes and fantastic battles. There are also activities such as fishing, cooking and drinking that you can enjoy while traveling. Furthermore, the spirits that appear in "Delve the World" and "Explore the World" events also appear in specific countries, so there will be plenty of new pleasures for players with a sense of adventure. ♦ BATTLE MAPS The map screen has been made to be more intuitive and look better than the Xbox 360 version. Players can view the map from anywhere and freely move between the map, party and mini map, and select characters. The map changes according to the character's movement, so you can view events taking place in other parts of the world. ♦ PLAYER ENGAGEMENT The graphics have been improved, and new activities and content have been added, but the game will not stop being the story of The Elden Ring, an Epic Drama with a rich cast of characters. • ENTRIES AND CONNECTIVITY * Since connection to the game server requires a certain degree of connection fee for each player, we have made it possible for players to experience "delaying pay" in which players need to pay a fee only once to enjoy the game. * Besides connection to the game server, players will also be able to enter an area for a limited time by performing an adventure or performing the required actions. * This adventure area will be displayed on the map as a color change, and you will not be able to access the area if you are not present. * Internet connection is required to access the "Fishing New Friendship" and "Crab-catching Friend" events. These events will not be available if internet connection is not available. *

The land of Eldur once knew peace. Five centuries ago, the demonic emperor Vathris swept away all life in the land and took the last of the wizards with him. Years passed until wise clergy and wizards were able to overthrow the oppressive rule of Vathris and brought again to life the land. Reuniting with their magic, elves, dwarves, and humans found homes in the restored archipelago, but the land flourished less than before. This renewed life sparked unexpected wonder and a resurgence of magic. It was as if a second time had come to be...

...Until a dark nemesis tore the lands apart once more and the two mighty races fought to preserve their future in the Lands Between. From the depths of the Underdark, monsters of incredible power prowl the world and sing a dark song of death. Resurgent magic ends spells, desecrates altars, and drains magic from its community. As the world lies in peril, will you answer Vathris' call and fulfill your oath to be a wizard of Eldur?

New Raiders cornerback Daryl Worley's dad says the backup quarterback's recently acquired family heirloom is an Oakland A's cap worn by the Hall of Famer in Game 3 of the 1975 World Series. The 2005 NFL Draft pick out of Valdosta State said he got it at a Raiders game at the Coliseum when he was 10 years old. He sold it later when he reached the NFL. Worley took a year off from school and went to training camp with the Raiders before playing last year, when he started five games for Oakland. Worley said he got the cap from his father after a late-night game at the Coliseum in 1975. He remembers getting it because Unitas was so memorable. "He was a hell of a quarterback," Worley said. "Any time you put a glove on, he was going to throw a touchdown." Worley's father, Chester Wor
